

Association of Professionals

The Association of Professionals provides avenues to promote your expertise: an online listing for your business or practice, a calendar for your special events, networking opportunities and more.

Help potential clients to quickly and confidentially connect with you - a local professional who strives to be the best in their field.

Membership Profile ($120 annually) includes:

- Company Name, Contact Name
- Title, Profession/Business Type
- Addresses: Office, Email, link to your Web site
- Phones: Office Phone, Cell Phone
- Photo or Logo
- Practice/Mission/Vision Statement
- List of Professional Degrees, Credentials, Certifications and Licenses
- List of Practice or Business Specialties and Services, Affiliations
- Personal Bio, Years in Practice/Business
- Client Ages Served, Credit Cards and Insurances accepted

Membership also includes:

- Invitations to “Meet & Greet Gatherings for Professionals” where you can network with others working with families and youth.
- Opportunity to have workshops and/or educational events posted on The Family Center’s web calendar of events.
- Ability to write articles for our weekly “Ask the Experts” column in the Grosse Pointe News. The articles are also published on our website.
- Opportunity to be a presenter for an Ask the Experts Talk. Many Talks are videotaped. Podcasts are also available.
- Promote your membership online with our logo and link.

The Family Center’s Association of Professionals is a great resource and an excellent means of connecting with a community of caring professionals, practitioners, organizations and businesses.
