Caledon, North/South choirs to perform in Family Center benefit

"Caledon, Scotland's Tenors," a world-renowned trio that has performed for Queen Elizabeth II, before U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan and enjoyed sell-out tours of North America, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, Mexico, Japan and the European continent, is coming to Grosse Pointe for a remarkable evening of entertainment to benefit The Family Center of Grosse Pointe & Harper Woods.

The Farms law firm of Wilson & Cain P.A. is responsible for making the evening possible. Law partners Gary M. Wilson and Randall D. Cain are both Family Center board members. "If you're unsure whether or not to attend, check out 'Caledon' on YouTube," said Randall Cain. "I'm sure that will entice you to get your tickets quickly before they sell out."

Caledon will perform with the choirs of Grosse Pointe North and South High Schools as well as give their own performance on Wednesday, Oct. 6. The concert is a celebration of The Family Center's "CELEBRATE 10!" festivities recognizing the 10th anniversary of the organization. Proceeds from the Caledon concert will support The Family Center's programs.

"This exciting performance gives us an opportunity to celebrate a decade of commitment to community families while we fundraise to provide additional programming opportunities in line with our mission," said Debbie Liedel, Director of The Family Center.

The 7:30 p.m. performance will take place at the Grosse Pointe Performing Arts Center at Grosse Pointe North High School and will include musical selections from Robert Burns to "Braveheart" to Rod Stewart and more. Tickets are $20 and are available online at www.familycenterweb.org and at various Grosse Pointe locations including:

Posterity, A Gallery	17005 Kercheval, GP
GP Chamber of Commerce	63 Kercheval, Ste. 16, GPF
The League Shop	72 Kercheval, GPF
Wild Birds Unlimited	20485 Mack, GPW

MORE

After the performance, ticketholders have the opportunity to attend an afterglow where they can meet the members of Caledon.
